Arboretum rules

For the safety of visitors, and to preserve the beauty and purpose of the Arboretum, it is essential that all visitors obey the following rules. Anyone using the Arboretum for other than its intended purposes will be asked to leave.

- The speed limit is 15 mph.
- Keep automobiles on the road and park only in parking lots.
- Collecting plant material or animal life is strictly prohibited.
Collection for scientific purposes requires a special permit.
- Deposit all refuse in the rubbish containers that have been provided.
- Picnic in designated areas only.
- Build fires in fireplaces only.
- No active sports or games are allowed.
- Dogs must be kept on leash.
- Children must be accompanied by responsible adults.
- All visitors must be out at closing time.

Admission

The $1 admission fee supplements the Arboretum's limited budget. If you are interested in supporting the Arboretum even more, and we hope you are, you are invited to become an Arboretum member. Various types of annual memberships are available. Information may be obtained at the gatehouse or office.

There is no admission fee for Arboretum members.

Thank you for your cooperation.
